

TRAINEE STATUTES AT UFP'S

INITIATION TO SCIENTIFIC ACTIVITIES PROGRAMME

1. Exceptionally, and whenever there is a clear added value for University Fernando Pessoa, post-graduate students that haven't yet earned their Doctoral degree (or equivalent), or that are not recognised experts in a specific area of their fields, can be accepted as trainees in Initiation to Scientific Activities for research work at UFP's premises. Students at other universities that are involved in research projects of the interest of teachers/researchers at UFP can be considered for this type of activities.
2. The statute of Trainee, after being approved by the appropriate Faculty's Direction, is valid for one civil year (non-renewable) and subject to the payment of an administrative fee of €500 for the use of services and for personal insurance.
3. The statute of Trainee does not allow its holder to earn credits for the attendance of classes of any kind: magisterial or theoretical (T); theoretical-practical (TP); non-laboratorial practical (P); laboratorial-practical (PL); clinical (C); field work (TC); tutorial (O) or seminars (S).
4. The ECTS credits resulting from the research activities' workload cannot be claimed to follow any study programmes at UFP.
5. All applications for the status of Trainee have to be accompanied of an invitation letter from the responsible teacher/researcher at UFP and of Annex A to the University Fernando Pessoa's Regulation of Intellectual Property.
6. The payment of the administration fee shall be completed up to one month before the start of the research activities by bank transfer:
